

DHCD Jack A. Proctor Virginia Building Code Academy 2014 Academy Schedule

The Jack A Proctor Virginia Building Code Academy (VBCA) announces its 2014 calendar year schedule effective January 1, 2014. New to this schedule this year are the Residential Building Inspection and Commercial Building Inspection three-day courses replacing the one 30-day building inspection class. In addition the JPVBCA will be offering two continuing education events - more details to follow. Refer to the course description for more information specific to each course or program offering and the Matrix for certification information. Please note all offerings are subject to change or cancellation based on enrollment of 14 persons or fewer or as otherwise indicated, based on program need or instructor availability.
